Bridal Consultant:

0 of 0 review helpful Save your money By patricia cram The book is not worth the price It is not very long also written in poor format The author sounds like she did not have any business being a consultant Very poor attitude Although the short book does give some interesting Information and a few laughs I do not feel it is worth the price Have you ever wondered what it takes to be a bridal consultant Behind the Gown gives you tips on how to talk a bride into purchasing a wedding It also shows the darker side of what happens behind the scenes at a bridal store From jealousy and competition between consultants to what consultants really think about their clients You ll never look at a bridal store or a consultant s job the same
